

Cell Groups at Penshurst Anglican Church

Our church calls itself a 'cell church', built upon the Biblical idea that the primary way that God's people can truly live out the Gospel is through small, intentional communities (called 'cells'). It is here where Jesus is given a far more intimate opportunity to do His work of transformation.

A time of Prayers and Testimonies will follow our baptism this afternoon. Please come back to the hall to celebrate this great day. Refreshments will be served.

For next week's farewell for Stewart and Virginia, we will have a Combined Service of worship and communion. Archdeacon Ian Cox will come and preach. After the service, we will have a special lunch and some speeches. Please come and give your special wishes to Stewart and Virginia as they enter into retirement.

A Planning Session was held with the Mandarin congregation in which it was agreed that we will have a six-week trial of Combined Worship every Sunday from 10:30 to 10:50, before the kids go out to SS. The trial will begin June 3rd. Pray for our music teams that we might join together well to lead the congregations in our common love of Jesus!

Pray for our baptism candidates

Blessed are you, caring God,
the fountain of all life and goodness.
You come to us before we turn to you
and run to meet us when we seek you.

Pour your abundant grace on these
your servants

who thirst for new birth
by water and the Spirit.

May you help us all to continually know our need for you and to put our total trust in you.

Praise be to you, O Holy One,
who was, and is, and shall be
for ever and ever.

Amen.
