

Cell Groups at Penshurst Anglican Church

Our church calls itself a 'cell church', built upon the Biblical idea that the primary way that God's people can truly live out the Gospel is through small, intentional communities (called 'cells'). It is here where Jesus is given a far more intimate opportunity to do His work of transformation.

Multi-Ethnic Church Conference— If you want to be encouraged in our pursuit of creating a multi-ethnic church, please consider attending the following conference, or at least coming on the Saturday.

BUILDING A CHURCH FOR ALL NATIONS

In an increasingly multi-ethnic Australia, it is important that the local church is equipped to evangelise the diverse communities around them. Jesus commanded us to "go and make disciples of all nations." But how do we do it? Is the multi-ethnic local church a biblical mandate or simply an option? How do we identify and overcome the challenges of developing a healthy multi-ethnic community of faith? In this conference you will learn from educators and practitioners of growing multi-ethnic churches why the most effective way to advance the Gospel in the twenty-first century is through strong and vital multi-ethnic churches.
