

Cell Groups at Penshurst Anglican Church

Our church calls itself a 'cell church', built upon the Biblical idea that the primary way that God's people can truly live out the Gospel is through small, intentional communities (called 'cells'). It is here where Jesus is given a far more intimate opportunity to do His work of transformation.

Preaching program

Sermon Series in Matthew's Gospel —

In this series, we seek to explore the life of Jesus as portrayed by Matthew. Even though the Apostle Matthew didn't write this Gospel, it was his recollections of the three years spent with Jesus that undoubtedly formed the basis of the text.

Pray for Persecuted Christians

It is sometimes difficult to imagine what life would be like in the countries on the World Watch List. But the things we don't think twice about, could change the life of a believer forever...

As we get ready for Bible study each week, it is hard to imagine having to constantly looking over our shoulders to ensure that we aren't being followed. But that's what believers in Turkmenistan have to do.

Getting ready for church, we never have to think about the fact that nearly 300 churches have been attacked in our country. But believers in Nigeria do.

As we practice our faith peacefully, it is hard to imagine not being able to a year from now. But believers in The Central African Republic saw this change in the past year.

It is difficult to imagine living in a country where persecution is getting worse and worse every year. But many of our brothers and sisters know this reality.

Would you partner with us in supporting Christians who live in countries on the World Watch List where the need is greatest? Your gift will help those who have seen increased persecution, have experienced recent violent attacks or are even displaced because of their faith. The needs of persecuted Christians can change quickly, so we need your help to come alongside our brothers and sisters in Christ.

As you attend church or Bible Study this week, say a prayer for those who risk everything to do the same thing. Thank you for standing with persecuted Christians- through both your gifts and prayers!
