

Cell Groups at Penshurst Anglican Church

Our church calls itself a 'cell church', built upon the Biblical idea that the primary way that God's people can truly live out the Gospel is through small, intentional communities (called 'cells'). It is here where Jesus is given a far more intimate opportunity to do His work of transformation.

English-Speaking Cell Groups/	Day/time/frequency
Bart VandenHengel	Tuesday/ 7:30pm/weekly

Preaching program

Current Sermon Series from Matthew 13 —

As we continue in this series, we see how the seven well-known parables from Matthew 13 all deal with the human heart. According to Jewish thinking, the heart is the seat of our emotional and intellectual life. All knowing, feeling, and willing were attributed to the heart by the Biblical writers.

Through these parables in Matthew 13, Jesus focused on the way the human heart responds to the Word of God's eternal Kingdom.

Sermon Series: Parables of the Heart

June 29	Priceless Pearls!	Revelation 21:9-27 Matthew 13:45-46

Next Sunday, we will all be hearing from Mark Galpin (Executive Director of United Mission to Nepal (UMN)). His message may help us to consider how we might better reach out to the growing Nepalese population of Penshurst.

- Please continue to pray for LZ, from China, who believed that God exists and is still investigating Christianity through Bible study. I am praying that he can join FOCUS camp at the end of this month.
- Praise God for about 70 students we are ministering to on a weekly basis this semester. Please pray for their continuing spiritual growth as they are facing final exams and heading into their winter holidays. Please pray that they can study well and succeed in their final exams, so that God is glorified in all things they do.
- Please pray for a couple of students graduating this semester, that God may lead them in their new phase of life.
- Please continue to pray for postgraduate international students have been invited to the Christian Academic and Postgraduates Bible Study. Praise God for GL who is a non-Christian postdoc student from China who has attended this Bible Study but had stopped coming in the last month due to off-campus project. Please pray that I can follow him up faithfully.
