

Cell Groups at Penshurst Anglican Church

Our church calls itself a 'cell church', built upon the Biblical idea that the primary way that God's people can truly live out the Gospel is through small, intentional communities (called 'cells'). It is here where Jesus is given a far more intimate opportunity to do His work of transformation.

English-Speaking Cell Groups/	Day/time/frequency
Bart VandenHengel	Tuesday/ 7:30pm/weekly
Gaye Bishop	Tuesday/ 7:30pm/ fortnightly

Give Thanks for the Ministry of Mother's Union

Over the past few months, several ladies from our church have joined with the local chapter of Mother's Union to knit and deliver hand-made booties, mittens, hats and teddies to new born babies in Hurstville Private and St. George Public Hospitals. Here are some letters we've received:

"We recently welcomed a daughter into the world at Hurstville Private Hospital and were delighted when visited by a member of your group to provide a very special gift. We were touched by the gesture and in awe of the beauty and quality of the items. We wanted to thank you sincerely for the time and effort, care and love that went into them...It is a lovely thing you do for families as a very exciting time of their lives. Thank you!" Jodie

"I am writing to express my heartfelt thanks for the very thoughtful card and beanie that was left on my bed while I was in the maternity ward...I was very touched and encouraged by the kindness and love in action you've shown. Blessings to you all." Rachel

"To the people of Penshurst Anglican Church. I am writing to say thank you for the lovely knitted teddy you gave us during our stay in Hurstville Private. We greatly appreciate your visit and the teddy will be a memorable keepsake. Kind regards." Lauren and Luke

"I recently had a baby girl at Hurstville Private Hospital, and although I didn't get to speak to anyone, a pair of beautiful booties were left at my door. What a wonderful gesture— thank you! Our little girl enjoys wearing them very much! Kind regards," Jessica and Liam
