Praise and Testimony evening (11th October 5:30pm at the church)

The evening will begin with a meal together then the praise and testimony will continue in Mandarin.

Murder of Charlie Kirk

It has been in the news and social media. What should we make of it all?

1. Charlie Kirk's death is a tragedy. Resorting to violence is never good.
2. Charlie was a Christian. Watch any video where he talks about his Christian faith and he shares the gospel.
3. Charlie was for free speech. He went to universities to interact with people who disagreed with him. It is a healthy society that can do this.
4. Charlie was a nationalist. Here is where disagreement about him begins. His focus is specifically on American issues and virtues.
5. Charlie was a Republican. He held strong views on gun control, LGBTQ+ issues, role of government and white privilege.

His death was neither as a martyr or hateful racist. The response to his death isn't entrenched rhetoric. It's prayer (1 Tim 2:1-4) and proclamation of the gospel.

Prayer

How to pray for the persecuted church

- Pray the believers will sense God's presence (Hebrews 13:5)
- Pray they would feel connected to the body of Christ (1 Cor 12:20, 26)
- Pray they would experience God's comfort (2 Cor 1:3-5)
- Pray they may have more opportunities to share the gospel (Col 4:3)
- Pray for boldness in making Christ known (Phil 1:14)
