Hope
I listened to a podcast on the weekend. It spoke of how unique the current time is. Previously the world has experienced a crisis (GFC, COVID, terrorism). Currently we face poly crisis (AI, war, economy, plague etc simultaneously).

The response by some is to act out of anger (consider what is happening in France). Christians though can face and endure any crises, because our hope is in the Lord Jesus who rules over this age and the one to come.

The world needs the hope we have. This time is when we can lead the way.
