Seeking God's will

I've asked members of the 9am service to seek God's will as to where we meet. So how do you do this?

1) Know yourself

What do you think or feel on the issue? Why do you think or feel this way?

It is easy to confuse our emotions with what we think God wants. We need to clarify where we are before finding out what God wants.

2) Open God's word

Here is where God makes his will clear. He tells us of what matters most to him and the character he wants us to have. There are times that there is a direct verse on the issue. Other times it will be bringing together principles for understanding what is significant (ie if the Bible doesn't say anything about the issue, perhaps it's not that important?).

3) Pray for wisdom

James 1 teaches us that God gives wisdom generously. As we want to do his will we should also seek his wisdom.

4) Discuss with other Christians

You need to move beyond what you think and feel to see if it resonates with other mature Christians. They will also give a different perspective to consider.
