Advent joy

Joy comes from our relationship with God. Joy also is a bodily experience involves tangible physical reactions driven by neurochemicals (dopamine, endorphins).

This Christmas experience joy as you express it. Speak your love for God out loud. Raise your hand in delight. Dance. As eat give thanks. Let your joy come out.

Pray with Joy (Sat 13th and 20th December, 9am-11am, prayer room)

This Christmas, take some time to come before God in prayer—whether it's ten minutes or an hour. Joy Watkinson will be available in the prayer room on Saturday mornings, where she will set up a variety of prayer stations to help you focus on Jesus.

Christmas at Penshurst

Christmas Eve service is at 6:30pm. It is our children's production and is family friendly.

Christmas Day service is at 10am. This is suitable for people familiar with church.

On Christmas Day, communion will be available after the service for anyone who wishes to participate. If you would like to take part, please let Pastor Phill or Pastor Michael know.

Prayer

Christmas

- Give thanks that Jesus came to open a new and living way.
- Give thanks that our Saviour was born and will soon come again.
- Pray for the children as they prepare for the Christmas Eve service.
- Pray that people would notice the banners and come to our services.
- Pray that our Google Ads would stir people to seek God.
